SPEEDY TIGERS BEAT ALL-STARS

With both teams at their fastest galt and separated by only a point or two all through the game, the Tigers of the local Y, M. C. A. won out, 20 to 12, on their home floor Saturday night from the Danielson All-Stars, who claim the eastern Connecticut championship in basketbail for secondary teams. It was the fastest and best clash seen in the Association gym this season, both fives playing a hard, aggressive but clean game, and the Tigers winning out in the second period, aggressive but clean game, and the Tigers winning out in the second period, after the All-Stars closed the first with a lead of two points, $-5. basket shooting of Caron in the second half was the feature of the rapid game and Gartland for the losers was the star performer in the seconing line, having a marvelous eye for goals from the foul line. Of these he set four in the first period, which was half the score for the All-Stars. Penalties were called more frequently on the home team, and Gartland's accuracy was a powerful factor in this half, but he missed a number of shots in the second, when they would have turned the tide for the All-Stars.

In the first half the clever passing game of the visitors had the locals guesaing some and the Danielson five finished in the lead 8 to 6. By close guardin, the Tigers broke this up some in the second period, while playing a fast and furious game for the basket, at which they kept a rain of shots flying. Caron was all over the court and quickly put the Tigers in the lead, 15 to 5 by two shots in succession made after ducink away from his guard. Gartland pulled the Stars up a point on a foul goal, but Parsons shot one from the center of the floor for the Tigors. Mellor slipped in one for the All-Stars and Gartland got an open shot, putting them in the lead, 12 to 12. Reed looped in a pretty one that sent the Tigers ahead again, a lead which they did not lose aagtin. The final score being. Tigers 20, Danielson All-Stars 19. The lineups and summary:

Own will.

If any man could be justified in seeking his own will we should say that man was Jesus of Nazareth. Yet his own will played no part in his work. KETCHELL LOOKS LIKE THE COMING HEAVYWEIGHT n Fight With Philadelphia Jack Comes Back Strong After Taking Heavy Punishment.

The victory of Stanley Ketchel over Jack O'Brien will go down in ring history as one of the biggest puglistic sensations of 1909. O'Brien showed up cleaner-cut than Ketchel when thep stepped into the ring. It looked as if Stanley was somewhat finely drawn, but he soon showed that he was in proper trim. The punishment he withstood later on established the fact clearly.

O'Belles made no new triangle through O'Brien made no new friends through his ring tactics. He added to his foss through his repeated clinching and hugging, and at times the booing was vociferous.

Stanley deserves a double credit for his brilliantly won victory.

Ketchel proved by this remarkable exhibition of buildog courage and pugnacity that he is one of the greatest fighters the world has ever seen. He never lost heart in the face of the gruelling punishment he received, but kept on forcing the fight until he got over the punches he had been trying from the outset to land. It was the worst beating that O'Brien ever received, and Ketchel was a real hero when he walked away in triumph to his dressing room.

It was a corking fight and every on went away with the impression that Ketchel one of these days will be the champion heavyweight of the world.

Rev. G. H. Ewing preached at the First Congregational church on Sun-day morning from Matt. 6-10, "Thy will be done in earth as it is in heavwill be done in earth as it is in neav-en." No man can pray that prayer with all his heart without being in the depths of his soul a Chastian. The history of the whole human race is a parchment on which God has been writing his will and man has been erasing the writing and inserting his own will.

At the M. E. Church.

At the M. E. Church.

At the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning Rev. Jerome Greer preached from Phil. 1-21, "For me to live is Christ and to die is galm." Christians should live for Christ. Paul's ideal of service is high, but not too high for the world's need of service. Death is gain to him who serves Christ.

Epworth League Entertains. The Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church gave an entertainment at the home of Mrs. Norton Vergason on Plain Hill-last week. Forty-four were present. A play, "Yankee Doodle Kitchen," was given, the following taking part: Mrs. Vergason, Elisie and Annie Vergason, the Misses Annie and Theodora Brown, Harry and Nellie Hughes. Cake and coffee were served. Home-made candy was for sale.

Road Measured and Numbered. On Saturday Constable David R. Kinney and Noyes D. Chase numbered and measured the street known as Otrobanda road. It is one and six-tenths miles in length. The first house, No. 2, is that of N. D. Chase, the last, No. 328 that of A. R. Manning. Today (Monday) the signs Otrobando avenue will be placed in position by Constable Kinney.

Miss Mary Gough Enters the Convent. Rev. C. T. McCann went to Meri-den Saturday to be present at a reception in St. Bridget's convent. Miss Mary Gough with six others received the white veil. Miss Gough took the name in religion of Sister Luke, joining the Sisters of Mercy. Relatives of the young novice were present. She is the first from Sacred Heart parish to enter the convent. Miss Gough secured a scholarship for art at the Norwich Academy Art school. She was also a graduate of the Boston Art school.

Rev. C. A. Northrop at Sheltering

Arms.

The service at the Sheltering Arms on Sunday afternoon was in charge of Rev. C. A. Northrop, assisted by Misses Carpenter, planist, Miss Gifford, soprano, and Miss Thomas, alto, of the Second Congregational church. Mr. Northrop spoke of Paul's conception of the power of the resurrection and the satisfaction of exchanging all for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. A soprano solo, "Jesus, and Shall It Ever Be," and an alto solo, "Hold Thou My Hand," were sung giving pleasure to all.
